

Did you know?

Did you know that Chicago Union Station replaced existing lighting with energy-efficient bulbs and installed motion sensors in some locations resulting in a savings of 3,142,932 kWh or $336,402 annually?

This is enough electricity to power 285 U.S. households for a year. These simple changes will also reduce our carbon footprint by 3.9 million pounds!

